

Job advertisement

2 student research assistants (WHF), up to 9h/week for 12 months

The project Soziale Sicherung im Krisenmodus (SoSiKri; Social Security in a Crisis Mode) funded by the Fördernetzwerk Interdisziplinäre Sozialpolitikforschung (FIS)/Bundesministerium für Arbeit und Soziales (BMAS) is looking for two research assistants (with BA degree), to support the project. Working hours are up to 9h/week; initially for the period of one year (prospectively longer). The project is led by Dr John Berten and Prof. Dr. Alexandra Kaasch. You will be linked to the AG “German and Transnational Social Policy”, Prof. Dr. Alexandra Kaasch, Faculty of Sociology. Start date: as soon as possible.

Requirements:

- BA in a social policy related field (e.g. political science, sociology, law, history, human geography)
- Very good command of English, editing skills
- At least basic knowledge of and great interest in the field of (eco-)social policy
- Excellent organisational skills
- Interest in public relations (support in the development of blog posts, podcasts, etc)
- Professional communication skills

Your tasks:

Supporting the research team with various tasks including

- Searching and organising literature
- Data collection and analysis
- Support in the preparation of presentations and publications
- Support in public outreach activities of the project

For further details please contact: Dr John Berten (john.berten@uni-bielefeld.de).

Excluded from application are applicants who have already concluded a service contract for the a/m period.

Please send your application (CV, certificates) in one single pdf document until 06.03.2024 (at the latest) to sekretariat.kaasch@uni-bielefeld.de.